Last year, Road Transport Highways Minister Nitin Gadkari said a blueprint has been drawn to boost production of electric vehicles in the country and take their share to 10 per cent of total automobile production in the next five years. This time India should think to promote green vehicles and reduce pollution, Gadkari said. Earlier to promote electric vehicles in India, the government had approved green license plates bearing numbers in white fonts for private vehicles and yellow for taxis.

or associations of kirana stores, traders and retailers here.

He "reiterated that India will not allow multi-brand retail by foreign companies and on the pretext of B2B (business-to-business) entry will be allowed for multi-brand retail," the minister said in a statement.

Goyal also "asserted that predatory pricing will not be allowed and necessary action will be taken against defaulters," the statement said.

He asked all the participants to send their suggestions on the draft e-commerce policy in the next five days.

field and the impact of anti-competitive practices like predatory pricing and other discriminatory methods that are being faced by them from foreign competition.

In a separate statement, Confederation of All India Traders (CAIT), which attended the meeting, demanded early formulation of e-commerce policy. "A regulatory authority should be constituted to regulate and monitor the e-commerce business with adequate powers to penalise or take action against entity which violates the policy," it said.
